

Step by Step – Content Guide

Guide to all Instructional Documents

The following documents are available on the AFS-600 website at <http://afs600.faa.gov> by clicking on '709 Support'. These documents will help you get acquainted with the testing application used to retest the St. George mechanics. Please download and print the 5 documents listed below, and keep them as a reference during test administration.

1. FAQ.doc
 - a. Contact information to obtain a username and password.
 - b. How to obtain your IP address.
 - c. Logging in for the first time.
 - d. Starting the application (brief description).
 - e. Resetting the 'Print' status.
 - f. Printing a test report.
 - g. Becoming familiar with the test application (brief guidance).

2. Test Information.doc
 - a. Test Information for 709 tests.
 - i. Exam codes.
 - ii. Exam name.
 - iii. Who takes which test.
 - iv. Number of questions.
 - v. Exam times.
 - b. Supplement Book Information.
 - i. Exam Code.
 - ii. Pages containing Airframe figures.
 - iii. Pages containing General figures.
 - iv. Pages containing Powerplant figures.
 - c. Explanation of subject matter code references.

3. FSDOBasic Instruction-QuickReference.doc
 - a. Registering an applicant – (1).
 - b. Readyng the applicant's test for delivery – (2).
 - c. Preparing the testing computer – (3).
 - d. Explanation of the exam application functions – pages 4, 5, 6, and 7.
 - e. Shutting down the computer – page 7.
 - f. Printing a test report – page 8.

4. MechanicSMCs.doc
 - a. List of Subject Matter Codes by Bank.
 - i. Airframe.
 - ii. General.
 - iii. Powerplant.

5. TroubleshootingGuide.doc
 - a. 'Non System Disk' error.
 - b. Booting computer and application seems to 'halt'.
 - c. Words scroll off the screen in the test delivery application.
 - d. Error Code 'error creating user session'.