Acceptable Forms of Authorization (for ALL tests listed above):

- Requires NO instructor endorsements or other form of written authorization.
- Failed, passing or expired Airman Knowledge Test Report, provided the applicant still has the ORIGINAL test report in his/her possession. (See RETESTING explanation(s) below.)
- “Expired test/credit” letter issued by the Airmen Certification Branch (in lieu of a duplicate Airman Knowledge Test Report).

Retesting - ADX & FNX:

- Requires a 30-day waiting period for retesting if the applicant presents a failed test report without a signed statement.
- ADX: Retests do not require a 30-day waiting period if the applicant presents a signed statement from an airman holding a certificate & rating sought by the applicant certifying that the airman has given the applicant additional instruction in each of the subjects failed, and that the airman considers the applicant ready for retesting.
- FNX: Retests do not require a 30-day waiting period if the applicant presents a signed statement from a certificated flight navigator, certificated ground instructor, or any other qualified person approved by the FAA Administrator. This statement must certify that the individual has given the applicant additional instruction in each of the subjects failed, and that the individual considers the applicant ready for retesting.
- Applicants taking retests AFTER PREVIOUS FAILURE are required to submit the applicable score report indicating failure to the testing center prior to retesting. The original failed test report shall be retained by the proctor and attached to the applicable sign-in/out log. The latest test taken will reflect the official score.

Retesting - Airline Transport Pilot Tests:

- Applicants retesting AFTER FAILURE are required to submit the applicable score report indicating failure, along with an endorsement from an authorized instructor who gave the applicant the additional training, and certifying the applicant is competent to pass the test. The original failed test report presented as authorization shall be retained by the proctor and attached to the applicable sign-in/out log. The latest test taken will reflect the official score.

Retesting for Higher Score (for ALL tests listed above):

- Applicants retesting IN AN ATTEMPT TO ACHIEVE A HIGHER PASSING SCORE may retake the same test for a better grade after 30 days. The latest test taken will reflect the official score. Applicants are required to submit the ORIGINAL applicable score report indicating previous passing score to the testing center prior to testing. Testing center personnel must collect and destroy this report prior to issuing the new test report.

AVIATION MECHANIC - AIRFRAME, GENERAL & POWERPLANT & DESIGNATED MECHANIC EXAMINER

TEST CODE	TEST NAME	NUMBER OF QUESTIONS	AGE	ALLOTTED TIME	PASSING SCORE
AMA	Aviation Mechanic Airframe	100	N/A	2.0	70
AMG	Aviation Mechanic General	50	N/A	1.5	70
AMP	Aviation Mechanic Powerplant	100	N/A	2.0	70
DME	Designated Mechanic Examiner	50	23	2.0	80

Acceptable Forms of Authorization - Aviation Mechanic Tests:

- Original Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Form 8610-2, Airman Certificate and/or Rating Application.
  - NOTE 1: Proctor should check for appropriate check blocks filled (in upper left corner of form). Those not applicable will have a line drawn through them. (Refer to Order 8080.6C, Appendix 1, Figure 14, for example.) If either or both the Airframe and Powerplant boxes are checked on the FAA Form 8610-2, along with the 'Original Issuance' box (and NOT the 'Added Rating' box), this serves as authorization for the Aviation Mechanic General (AMG) exam. (If the 'Added Rating' box is marked, this indicates that the AMG exam is NOT required.)
  - NOTE 2: Proctor should ensure block V is completed, including date, original signature, and office designator. (Refer to Order 8080.6C, Appendix 1, Figure 14, for sample form.)
  - NOTE 3: Applicant retains FAA Form 8610-2.
- Graduates of a Part 147 school, officially affiliated with a testing center, may take the knowledge test upon presenting an appropriate graduation certificate or certificate of completion to the affiliated testing center. A graduate's name must be on the certified list received from the Part 147 school prior to administering the appropriate test(s).

Acceptable Forms of Authorization - DME:

- Signed letter of acceptance from the FAA National Examiner Board. The original letter shall be destroyed by the test proctor after the applicant has been issued an official test report. A copy of the letter may be retained by the testing center.

Acceptable Forms of Authorization (for ALL tests listed above):

- Failed, passing or expired Airman Knowledge Test Report, provided the applicant still has the ORIGINAL test report in his/her possession. (See RETESTING explanation(s) below.)
- "Expired test/credit" letter issued by the Airmen Certification Branch (in lieu of a duplicate Airman Knowledge Test Report).

Retesting - Aviation Mechanic Tests:

- Retests do not require a 30-day waiting period if the applicant presents a signed statement from an airman holding the certificate & rating sought by the applicant. This statement must certify that the airman has given the applicant additional instruction in each of the subjects failed, and that the airman considers the applicant ready for retesting. Requires a 30-day waiting period for retesting if the applicant presents a failed test report without a signed statement.

Retesting - DME:

- Requires a 30-day waiting period for retesting.

Retesting (for ALL tests listed above):

- Applicants taking retests AFTER FAILURE are required to submit the applicable test report indicating failure to the testing center prior to retesting. The original failed test report shall be retained by the proctor and attached to the applicable sign-in/out log. The latest test taken will reflect the official score.
- Applicants retesting IN AN ATTEMPT TO ACHIEVE A HIGHER PASSING SCORE may retake the same test for a better grade after 30 days. The latest test taken will reflect the official score. Applicants are required to submit the ORIGINAL applicable test report indicating previous passing score to the testing center prior to testing. Testing center personnel must collect and destroy this report prior to issuing the new test report.
